

Pearls of Wisdom:

Points for Self-Reflection

As you practice your skills throughout the Introduction to R for Public Health Investigations course:

Identify one thing that you found easy

Identify one thing you found surprising

List one piece of advice you would give to a friend who is brand new to R

Name one thing that you can see yourself using in your work after the course ends